

"... have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness."

—Eph. 5:11

DEMOCRATS, REPUBLICANS & ME

ONCE AGAIN THE SLAVES VOTE

There is a sickness that has taken root in America. A sickness of the mind. This sickness is caused by idolatry disguised as patriotism. It infects Americans in all walks of life ... from the uneducated to the leaders of academia.

Americans afflicted with this sickness don't think they are idolators ... because they are deluded into thinking that they can be both American patriots and Christians at the same time, and that there is no conflict between the two philosophies. But they have either forgotten or ignored the teaching of Jesus who told us, "No man can serve two masters." (Mtt 6:24).

Americans who voluntarily choose to participate in the political process of the Beast System need to ask themselves which master they are choosing to serve. When they choose to voluntarily accept the process and become a voting member of the corporate Beast System, they are abdicating their covenant with Christ and their citizenship in New Jerusalem.

Furthermore, when someone voluntarily chooses to place faith and/or hope in the American political process he is making an implied formal statement that he has no faith in the Kingship of Christ.

This is a VERY serious and dangerous step. It needs to be carefully considered, for it has deep implications.

We are told to "cast off the works of darkness" (Rom. 13:12). The works of the Beast System are the darkest of this age ... routinely lying, stealing, and murdering.

14. Be you not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion has light with darkness?

15. And what concord has Christ with Belial? or what part has he that believes with an infidel?

16. And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? for you are the temple of the living God; as God has said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17. Wherefore come out from among them, and be you separate, says the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18. And will be a Father to you, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.

2 Cor. 6:14-18

You see, this decision can literally determine whether or not one is accepted into the present Reign of Christ.

6. Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things comes the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

7. Be not you therefore partakers with them.

8. For you were formerly in darkness, but now you are in the light of the Lord: walk as children of light:

11. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

14. Wherefore he says, Awake you that sleep, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light.

15. See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

16. Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

Eph 5:6-16

We are to not act as fools thinking that there is benefit to participating in the Beast System that is carefully designed to use us ... not help us.

12. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against founding systems, against authorities, against the controllers of this system of darkness, against spiritual wickedness in high office.

Eph 6:12

When anyone voluntarily participates in the Beast System he shows his preference. When one prefers to trust in the Beast System rather than the Kingship of Christ he is doing the same thing the Israelites did in 1 Samuel 8 when they chose to reject the rule of God and opted for a government like the other nations had.

So, be aware ... and avoid the pitfall of getting sucked into the process of man's political campaigning and voting. Keep your priorities right ... and don't make a statement of rebellion against your rightful King Jesus.

VOTING FOR EVIL?

It is often said that when entering the voting booth you must choose between the lesser of two evils. While that may be true, it is also true that the lesser of two evils is still an evil. That is a choice men with integrity cannot accept.

When a person voluntarily accepts the voting process of the Beast System he contracts (covenants) with the Beast System. Furthermore he is declaring his faith in the Beast System and a lack of faith in Christ's system. He is accepting the rules and customs that accompany that contract/covenant. You cannot covenant with the Beast and with Christ at the same time.

When Israel did this in Isaiah's day, they placed faith in Egypt (the Beast System of that day) instead of trusting in Yahweh. Isaiah called this process "making a covenant with death."

15. Because you have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have taken refuge in lies, and concealed ourselves in deceit:

Isaiah 28:15

1. Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help; and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not to the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the LORD!

Isaiah 31:1

Today, only a fool puts faith in the Beast System rather than in Christ's Kingship.

The following article helps to express the foolishness of thinking there is benefit to participating in the U.S. political process.

VOTING FOR DEATH

(By Linh Dinh)

America, you have become a nation of enablers and apologists for tyranny and mass murder. You condemn the Nazi and gulag guards of times past even as you celebrate your own mercenaries and torturers, even as you explain away, if not outright cheer, the unspeakable crimes committed by your sons and daughters. You don't care who you kill, as long as your soldiers are paid, and your munitions, bomb and tank factories are humming.

Safely ensconced in academic luna parks, your leading intellectuals lean slightly right or left, but never enough to rock this blazing gunboat, lest they sour the cocktail parties or, god forbid, have their tenure revoked. Mouths stuffed with antipasti, they're expert at sidestepping Israel's prolific crimes, 9/11, Bin Laden's faux death or the parasitic Federal Reserve, and as another joke election nears, they're all gung ho about candidates who back illegal wars and banking frauds, since each is supposedly the lesser of two evils.

For the past five presidential elections, winning candidates have won 52.9%, 50.7%, 47.9%, 49.2% and 43% of the popular votes respectively, so there hasn't been an overwhelming mandate for any of them, but with the runner ups from the other major party often close behind – and in 2000, actually ahead in the popular vote count – the two-party system has gotten a stranglehold on our public life and pocketbooks. As for our senators, only two are not Democrat or Republican. An American election, then, is basically a rigged referendum for this thoroughly corrupt and murderous system. Simply by voting you will give it the green light to go on killing and looting. Every four years, we're railroaded into sanctioning endless war and bottomless corruption. If disappointed, we're steered by our brainwashing and dumbing-down media to vote for a near clone of our current rapist.

The Good Old Party spooks the upper and middle classes by threatening, "If you don't vote for us, the Dems will take your hard-earned cash and give it to the freeloaders, crackheads and other miscellaneous losers"; while the Democrats, in turn, scare the lower rungs by snarling, "If you don't vote for us, the Republicans will let you rot under a bridge, on a piece of cardboard." But the fact is, Obama is leaving people under bridges too.

It is fitting that as our vote has become meaningless, we're offered myriad opportunities to vote for all sorts of irrelevant acts and personalities, from singing oafs to dancing buffoons, to steroid-charged sluggers. Americans have never voted so much for so little.

Each party paints the other as the greater evil, though both are equally whorish to a military banking complex that has wrought grief and destruction worldwide, including here. We can only beg for meaningless changes, instead of real ones, and must vote, again, for proven liars and criminals ... and hopelessly watch them abandon us again.

So how does it feel to have so much evil, deceit and betrayal hardening through the entire length of your being?

But what's worse is that you, yourself, have allowed it to happen, have enabled it, if only symbolically, by voting for war and corruption. Americans will vote, in fact, and will again endorse an openly criminal agenda ... and the world will again be aghast.

With his cartoon drawing of a bomb, Netanyahu's recent UN speech brings to mind Colin Powell and his phony chart and drawings back in February, 2003, before the Iraq invasion. Bush tried to convince us that a war was necessary, whereas Obama hasn't even bothered. Ignoring congress and the American public, he simply ordered a massive bombing campaign against Libya, which he mockingly dubbed a "kinetic military action"; unleashed lesser strikes against Somalia, Yemen and Pakistan, and sent terroristic proxies (including al-Quada) into Syria, all without significant protest from our dozing public or groveling intelligentsia.

Pumped with nonstop propaganda from our corporate media in this mad house of mirrors, we neither see nor care how others perceive us, for even as international protests mount, our flags burnt, our soldiers killed by supposed allies and poll after poll shows us the most despised nation on earth, we still believe we're loved and admired worldwide.

Our politicians are only too glad to pander to this vanity. Romney: "We have a moral responsibility to keep America the strongest nation on earth, the hope of the earth, the shining city on the hill."

Obama: "Never bet against the United States. The United States has been, and will always be, the one indispensable nation in world affairs."

Only children believe in fairy tales, but that's how our politicians talk to us these days.

So the world will again be aghast, as will posterity, unless we can somehow prove that we, at least, are not behind the winning criminal.

Already, nearly half of Americans don't cast ballots in any election, but we must make this abstention purposeful, as a clear sign of protest and not an act of apathy. The world must see that Americans are not all deranged and hypnotized like those who cheer and vote for one lying criminal after another. We are better than this, so let's prove it.

The sooner we can effect a divorce between us and our rogue government, the sooner we can get rid of it. If nothing else, to resist this electoral farce is to wash our hands, partially, at least, of the innocent blood being spilled. It is the only moral decision.

"CONSERVATIVES" GREED & STUPIDITY

(my own thoughts)

I would rather die than be a Republican or a Democrat ... or member of any political party. Furthermore, in terms of my view of society I would rather be thought a Liberal than a Conservative. "Liberal" is defined as: free; generous.

I should preface my explanation with this: I fully expect that I'm wasting my time trying to address this section of the American populace (i.e., the American Patriotic Republican/Conservative crowd). Frankly, this crowd is generally so arrogant and obtuse that nothing I could say, no event, no catastrophe (not even a 9-11 event or a 2009 banking crash) can open their eyes. They are so self-righteous and blind they cannot see that they are being turned into manipulated fools by FOX News and the talking heads on TV who speak for Wall Street and Capitol Hill.

Conservatives in the first century murdered Jesus. They were the Pharisees. They believed it was expedient for a sinless man to die rather than a nation to be embarrassed (Jn. 11:50). That is the conservative patriotic mindset.

Conservatives today wave the flag and are proud of themselves, their mindless murdering military industrial complex, and their rubber Constitution. Conservatives are quick to defend unwarranted and illegal wars started by the bankers and CEOs of major corporations, especially under the rubric of "National Security." Any war crime is permissible as long as we win the war. It doesn't matter what is right or wrong. It only matters who wins.

Conservatives are committed to preserving past mistakes and proven failures, and defending their established programs that are wrong and hateful. Conservatives are stingy, conceited, prejudiced, and blind to criticism. They actually think they are superior to others. In short, Conservatives represent nearly everything I am against in terms of society and philosophy. Today, most Conservatives are proud Republicans.

Conservative Republicans tend to have closed minds. They love to blame America's problems on everyone but themselves. They blame the Democrats for "giving away too much." But think about it. They claim that the sharing of "their" goodies is crippling the country and ruining the economy. It amounts to an Ayn Randish kind of greed and lack of charity ... and it has become a popular model among "conservatives." This model of political theory blames the poor and lowly for ruining the country.

My email inbox is inundated daily by vitriol against Obama based upon some Republican pundit's sophomoric explanation of economics, and that "Obama is turning America into a Socialist nation," or "Obama is a Muslim," or "Obama is arrogant and connected to the Chicago mafia," or "Obama is putting the nation in debt," or "Obama has no effective foreign policy and is making America weak militarily." All of these reflect the deceit of campaign rhetoric. And it is comical because the state of America that Conservatives want to preserve is one that has been fascist and socialist for generations already.

What planet do these people live on? Do they just wake up every year or so ... just long enough to read some half-baked Republican rhetoric, parrot it, and then go back to sleep? They sure can't remember four years. Trying to blame Obama for America's problems is like trying to blame an airline pilot for the poor design of his airplane. Put another man in the pilot's seat and the airplane is still poorly and dangerously designed and is still likely to crash.

Not only that, but the inference in their accusations is that we, as Americans, can save America by voting Obama out and voting Romney in.

Do they actually believe this? Surely they are not that dumb. Romney, if elected, will “save America” pretty much the same way Bush saved America. Remember? Bush/Romney patriots aren’t concerned about morals and war crimes ... they are only concerned about winning. None of that matters as long as they win.

Admittedly, Obama and the Democrats are crooks and frauds. They are wrecking America in their own way. But, so what? Romney and the Republicans would continue wrecking America too ... possibly faster.

Now before I go further, I must add that some Liberals today can have their problems as well. They may be infected with lawlessness. They may tend to make their own rules and change them day by day depending upon their mood at the time. In other words, anything goes. Lawlessness is a disease that can infect Liberals or Conservatives, and it makes them inconsistent and morally dishonest, and it leads them into trouble.

However, this character flaw is not due to liberality ... rather it is due to being lawless and rejecting God’s guidelines and morals.

Lawlessness stems not from a liberal nature, but from two things: 1. ethical dishonesty and 2. the churches’ teaching that God’s laws are abolished. Thus, Liberals can be led astray, not by liberality, but by lawlessness.

Liberality is the best model for Christians ... although most Christians haven’t realized it. Scripture tells us that “freely we receive, and freely we should give.” Also that charity is the best virtue. That describes a godly man with a liberal mindset. God is liberal toward us with his grace, his blessings, and his love. We should be liberal with ours too.

24. There are those who share, and still increase; and there are those who strictly withhold, but tend to poverty.

25. The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that waters shall be watered also himself.

Prov. 11:24-25

A liberal mind is able to expand and consider big ideas; to learn new things and change (repent) when needed. A liberal mind is a mind that is not closed.

Now, truthfully ... if you think of yourself as a Conservative, ask yourself how charity and “give away programs” can, or ever have, hurt the economy of a nation? Generosity strengthens a nation. Deceit and cruelty are the things that are destroying America.

More to the point, most “Conservatives” claim to be Christians. They need to ask themselves where in the Bible does God blame the poor and lowly for bringing a society to destruction? Show me a prophet who warns against helping the poor and lowly! Rather, God warns us consistently about the dark, evil works of the rich merchants of the earth.

The good Republican will counter with the argument: “It isn’t true charity that I dislike. Its Obama’s way of giving away stuff to people who don’t deserve it!”

So, following that reasoning, who then deserves charity?

Based upon the “Conservative’s” own idea of who deserves charity, I’d ask them about the tax benefits and exemptions from which they, themselves, benefit? And what of the tax exemptions and subsidies given to the super rich ... like Romney? Do they deserve government giveaways more than the poor deserve them? This, after all, is public support.

And what about people who collect Social Security even though they already have a generous retirement and investments? If they are good Republicans shouldn’t they stop draining the public coffers by taking public money?

There are many government programs designed to help the monied and landed people to cut taxes and/or get grants and free money (subsidies) from public funds. These programs are not designed to help the poor, but to benefit people who don’t need help.

Idaho is a red-necked Republican state through and through. Idahoans hate Democrats and Obama ... and most Idahoans live off government money and state subsidies. Go figure. Looks to me like they are hypocrites.

I don’t hear the typical “Conservatives” or the “Republicans” complaining about these programs for the well-off. I only hear them griping about programs for the poor.

Personally, I think that the real motive behind the Republican propaganda mill is to feed the fire of greed and deception. The typical American Republican on-the-street actually thinks that his interests are being protected by the super-rich bankers on Capitol Hill. He doesn’t have enough sense to realize that his political heroes in Washington are robbing him too.

Republicans’ stupidly think of themselves as a class above. They defend the super rich because they actually classify themselves among them. But truth is, the super rich are far, far above them ... and they look upon the common Republican voter as just another head of cattle. Republicans are just too dumb and arrogant to realize it.

But just for the record, let me reiterate. Democrat leaders use their followers with equal callous disdain and deceit. Democrats are as dumb and lost as Republicans ... just with a little different approach.

The only sensible thing is to look elsewhere for help.

1. I will lift up my eyes to the hills, from whence comes my help.

2 My help comes from Yahweh, who made heaven and earth.

Ps. 121: 1-2

22. For Yahweh is our judge, Yahweh is our lawgiver, Yahweh is our King; He will save us.

Isaiah 33:22

Don’t look to the Beast System for your help. There is nothing there but disappointment and hopelessness.
